Our assessment process

✓ Make an enquiry at Hampson Psychology and book an intake appointment with one of our Psychologists

Book a long appointment with your GP to get a 'Mental Health Treatment Plan'. This will allow you to claim Medicare Rebates for eligible appointments

Email your 'Mental Health Treatment Plan' to admin@hampsonpsychology.com.au

Complete the online 'Intake and Consent form' that we email you

Attend your initial psychology appointments. Your psychologist will make assessment recommendations based on the information gathered during this appointment.

Attend any required subsequent appointments. Your psychologist will guide you on how many appointments they will need to see you for and whether any collateral information needs to be provided by you.

Your psychologist will create an assessment plan and which will include the quote for the assessment to be completed.

Accept your assessment quote and confirm appointment times.

Complete your assessment and return any outstanding questionnaires.

Receive assessment report

Optional: Attend further psychology appointments. During these appointments you will be able to ask any questions you have about your results and your psychologist will provide strategies based on the findings of the assessment.
